Best Camping Cots: Stay Warm and Comfortable on Your Next Trip

The best camping cots of 2022 to make your next adventure more comfortable.

Best King Size Cot: Titan Cot XP - XL

WHY IT MADE THE CUT:

A rugged and reliable extra large cot for maximum comfort.

Recharging with the family and spending a weekend in the woods is a favorite pastime of many. A good cot can make the difference between a restless night and an enjoyable getaway. If you find yourself booking campsites and loading up the car then a large and sturdy camp cot is ideal for your trips. As the best king-size cot, the Titan XL Cot from Browning is a great option for family camping trips. With over 7 feet of sleeping length and a 450 lb weight capacity, anyone can sleep on it. It's easy to set up and rugged enough to handle a pile of gear during the day and be ready for a night in camp.
